

Types of Awards

Romeo Dare Memorial All Around Logger (male and female)

The All Around Logger trophy will be awarded on a point basis. The logger scoring the highest total points in the logging events will be declared the winner. Points earned in the relay events will not be counted.

In the event of a tie in total points after all competition, the contestant receiving the most first place points will win. If a tie still exists, the contestant receiving the most second place or successive place points until the tie is broken will win.

The winning contestant will be recognized as the ALL AROUND LOGGER OF WDT and will be duly listed in the WDT record book.

There will be a male and female All Around Logger trophy.

Novice All Around Logger (male and female)

The Novice All Around Logger trophy will be awarded on a point basis. The logger scoring the highest total points in the logging events will be declared the winner. Points earned in the relay events will not be counted.

In the event of a tie in total points after all competition, the contestant receiving the most first place points will win. If a tie still exists, the contestant receiving the most second place or successive place points until the tie is broken will win.

The winning contestant will be recognized as the NOVICE ALL AROUND LOGGER OF WDT and will be duly listed in the WDT record book.

There will be a male and female Novice All Around Logger trophy.

Sportsmanship Award

The Sportsmanship award is given to the contestant who has demonstrated the most cooperation and assistance to the Logging Contest committee, judge and to his fellow contestants. The winner is decided by a majority vote by the judges and Logging Contest committee. There will be a Sportsmanship trophy for one male and one female. A person will only receive the Sportsmanship award once.

The World Trophy

The World trophy will be awarded to the winner of the Ax throwing contest. The contestant regardless of sex scoring the most points in the elimination contest will be the winner. If there is a tie a rematch will be held. Women must throw from 20 feet in order to be counted for the World trophy.

Note: Other types of awards may be added and announced by the Logging Contest committee and the WDT committee before the start of the WDT or each logging contest.